

The New Jersey implementation of the "Telephone Consumer Protection Act" law has been remarkably successful. I am no longer plagued by calls at all hours of the day and night by everyone from stock touts to casket salesmen.

I strongly urge you not only to support the New Jersey implementation of the "Telephone Consumer Protection Act" but to consider adopting it as the federal standard.